

DEC | JAN 2010

House Beautiful

new PEOPLE

new LOOKS

new Ideas

how we'll

DECORATE
in 2010

HOUSE BEAUTIFUL

DECEMBER | JANUARY 2010

the NEXT

the
NEXT WAVE

Produced by DORETTA SPERDUTO

Many of today's hottest young interior designers—Nate Berkus, Ruthie Sommers, Laura Kirar—were introduced to the national scene in House Beautiful, in an annual tradition called the Next Wave. Here, for the first time in five years, the Next Wave is back, with 20 interior designers our editors have picked as the ones to watch. Who will break through? Who will we all be talking about...next year? >> 11.

LISA McDENNON

Laguna Beach, CA

lrmdesign.com

WHAT'S NEW ABOUT YOU?

Our job as interior designers can be more than just helping a home look beautiful—we can help people create a better life at home, too.

WHO'S YOUR FAVORITE DECORATOR EVER?

Kelly Hoppen.

WHAT'S THE MOST INSPIRING THING YOU'VE SEEN LATELY?

My recent trip to Miami inspired me in many ways: the crystal-clear turquoise water; the fabulous Delano hotel; the Setai hotel, which has a strong Asian influence, something that I'm always drawn to.

TELL US ONE OF YOUR SECRET DESIGN RESOURCES.

United Community thrift store in Capistrano Beach.

MAKE A DECORATING PREDICTION.

People will demand products created by artisans and local craftsmen instead of mass-produced, cheaper materials.

